Notes: The runners with visual impairment must, upon registration via the official website or official app of BANK OF CHINA BEIJING MARATHON 2026 & NATIONAL MARATHON CHAMPIONSHIPS, log into the official website, download and complete the APPLICATION FORM FOR VISUALLY IMPAIRED ATHLETES, and submit it along with a scanned copy or photo of the runner's disability certificate to the Organizing Committee via email (oc@beijing-marathon.com) by 6 p.m. on 22

September 2026 (Beijing time). Any runner with visual impairment must have a guide runner throughout the race. The guide runner must also complete the required registration and reporting process. The concerned runners shall be held solely responsible for any consequences arising from their unauthorized participation without the above-mentioned steps. If total entries exceed the quota, unselected entrants with visual impairment and their guide runners need to join the lottery. Should either entrant with visual impairment or guide runner fails to make the payment within the designated period, both parties will be deemed to have automatically waived their entry qualifications, which will not be retained. The Organizing Committee confirm the waiver with both parties. If a safety incident (including personal injury to the runner) occurs due to the guide runner's failure to fulfill their duties, the concerned runners shall bear full responsibility.
