

BANK OF CHINA BEIJING MARATHON 2026 &
NATIONAL MARATHON CHAMPIONSHIPS Commitment Letter for Participation

Participant Declaration

I. I hereby voluntarily register to participate in the Bank of China Beijing Marathon 2026 and related activities (hereinafter referred to as "Competition" or "Event").

II. I fully understand and agree to comply with the rules, regulations, provisions, requirements, and precautions formulated by the Organizing Committee and the organizing agency (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Organizers") for the Event. I shall not engage in any conduct that may damage or undermine the reputation and legitimate interests of the Organizers, sponsors, and related brand owners.

III. I agree to provide the Organizers with true and valid identification documents for verification of my identity and eligibility to participate in the Competition, and I agree to bear all liabilities arising from any false identification document or information.

IV. I promise to register and participate in the Competition in my own name, and I am aware of the Organizers' regulations that the bib may not be transferred to others for use (From the time I receive the official bib until the conclusion of the Event, I am obligated to properly keep the official bib. In case the bib is lost due to my failure to properly keep it, or is transferred or lent without authorization, resulting in a third party gaining access to the course with the official bib, I am willing to bear the legal consequences and liabilities arising therefrom, and I agree to make compensation for all losses (if any) thus incurred by the Organizers).

V. I am fully aware that, if I am unable to participate in the Competition for personal reason, I have no right to request a refund of the registration fee from the Organizers, and I shall not transfer or lend the official bib to others.

VI. I have made sufficient preparations for my participation in the Competition and have undergone a formal physical examination at a medical institution prior to the Competition. The physical examination report I provided to the Organizers during the registration period is true and valid. I confirm that my physical condition is sufficient to participate in the Competition, that I have no illness unsuitable for competitive sports, and that my physical condition and psychological resilience meet the eligibility criteria for participation in the Competition. If I have concealed or failed to report any related condition, resulting in any injury accident during the Event, all liabilities arising therefrom shall be borne solely by me, and the Organizers and their related parties shall not be held liable in any form towards me or my immediate relatives. I agree to cooperate with the verification on participation information during the Event. If I do not meet the health requirements, I will voluntarily withdraw from the Competition and cooperate with medical staff for follow-up examinations.

VII. I agree that the Organizers will procure personal accident insurance for me as the insured. The specific details have been disclosed in the insurance policy, and I fully acknowledge and accept them.

VIII. I fully understand the various risks that may arise from my participation in the Competition and have taken necessary preventive measures. I am willing to bear the liabilities for any unexpected risk that may occur during the Competition, and I agree that the Organizers shall not be held liable for any compensation for personal accidents or any other losses incurred by me for any reason not attributable to them.

IX. I pledge to strictly comply with the anti-doping regulations and resolutely refrain from using any prohibited substances or methods. If I violate the anti-doping regulations, I am willing to accept penalties imposed by the relevant authorities in accordance with applicable regulations and will actively cooperate with the investigation. I promise to diligently study anti-doping knowledge and improve my self-protection awareness and ability. If I suffer from personal injury or death during the Competition due to the use of performance-enhancing drugs or other prohibited substances, all legal liabilities and consequences arising therefrom (including but not limited to medical expenses, lost wages, disability compensation or consideration, or death compensation) shall be borne solely by me.

X. I agree to accept on-site emergency medical treatment (including automated external defibrillator (AED) treatment) provided by the Organizers during the Competition; however, any expenses incurred from medical treatment in hospital beyond the coverage of the insurance procured by the Organizers shall be my responsibility.

XI. I promise not to alter, copy, or cover the official bib during the Competition.

XII. I will follow the instructions of the referees, volunteers, security personnel, and medical staff during the Competition, and consciously maintain the order during the Event. I will not complete the Competition relying on transportation vehicles or other means, and will conscientiously fulfill my responsibilities and obligations as an athlete, ensuring safe, civilized, and fair competition.

XIII. I will strictly abide by the security check and check-in system of the Competition, the relevant laws and regulations on public security in Beijing, and the rules of the competition organization. I will not bring any dangerous goods, prohibited item, bottled liquids and beverages, or cans into the venue, and will consciously maintain my own and others' safety.

XIV. I will participate in the Competition in a civilized manner, consciously abide by the rules and regulations of competition and sports ethics, and help maintain a fair sports competition environment. I pledge not to urinate or defecate in non-restroom areas such as the start and finish points of the Competition or along the route, and not to litter, so as to jointly protect the environment.

XV. I agree that the Organizers may use my competition photos, images, videos and other competition materials, as well as my portrait, voice and other personal characteristics on news media platforms and channels (including but not limited to newspapers, magazines, television, WeChat official accounts, Weibo, and Douyin) for the purpose of promoting the Event.

XVI. I promise to store my personal belongings in accordance with the regulations of the Organizing Committee, and to bear all losses arising from my failure to store my personal belongings in accordance with the regulations.

XVII. I promise to submit a Commitment Letter for Participation in Competition signed by me before collecting the competition items.

XVIII. I hereby acknowledge and agree to voluntarily undergo facial information collection during the Competition for identity verification during the Event, as well as for identity checks upon check-in and completion of the Competition.

XIX. I agree to participate in the Competition wearing the competition uniform provided by the Organizing Committee. I promise not to wear any clothing or apparel intended for commercial brand promotion or bearing organizational or institutional logos not permitted by the Organizing Committee; not to wear or carry any clothing, equipment, or items that may cause injury or fall to other athletes, or wear any mask; not to wear any clothing or apparel that may cause discomfort to athletes or spectators; and not to wear any clothing or apparel with political or religious watchwords, patterns, or slogans.

I have carefully read and fully understood the above content, and hereby confirm all of it. If I engage in any conduct in violation of this Statement, I shall bear all legal liabilities arising therefrom, and compensate for all losses thus incurred by the Organizers and their related parties.

Commitment Letter for Participation

Bank of China Beijing Marathon 2026 will be held on November 2, 2026. To ensure the event is conducted in a safe, standardized, and fair manner, safeguard the health and safety of all participants, maintain the positive image of the event, and demonstrate the good conduct of runners, this Commitment Letter is hereby formulated in accordance with the relevant requirements. All participants shall establish the concept of "everyone is the first person responsible for his/her own health", and take appropriate personal health and safety precautions. Each participant, as well as his/her heirs, agents, personal representatives, relatives, and family members, is kindly requested to carefully read and acknowledge all matters in this Commitment Letter. In case of any false commitment or concealment of any fact that may affect the participation, the relevant participant voluntarily assumes all resulting consequences and legal liabilities arising therefrom.

I. Commitment on Health and Safety Responsibilities

(1) I promise that I, along with my heirs, agents, personal representatives, relatives, and family members, have fully understood the potential risks associated with marathon sports, and have completed a physical examination and self-health assessment prior to the competition.

(2) I promise that I do not suffer from the following diseases or physical conditions which would make me unsuitable for participating in the marathon competition:

- ① Congenital heart disease, rheumatic heart disease, myocarditis, and other heart diseases.
- ② Hypertension and cerebrovascular diseases.
- ③ Coronary artery disease and severe arrhythmia.
- ④ Moderate chest pain experienced during light activities, and severe coronary artery disease (angina).
- ⑤ Diabetes with excessively high or low blood sugar levels.
- ⑥ Having had a cold or abnormal body temperature within two weeks prior to the competition day.
- ⑦ Having consumed alcohol or lacked sufficient sleep the night before the competition.
- ⑧ Pregnancy.
- ⑨ Other diseases unsuitable for exercise.

(3) I promise that I have fully understood the potential dangers during the training, competition, and related activities in this event, as well as the consequences of injuries, illnesses, and even death resulting therefrom. I will participate in this competition with a responsible attitude towards my health and safety.

(4) I am willing to abide by all the rules, regulations, and participation requirements of this event. If I discover or notice any risk or potential risk during the competition, I will immediately terminate the competition and inform the relevant personnel of the event in a timely manner.

(5) I, as well as my heirs, agents, personal representatives, relatives, and family members, voluntarily waive the right to claim for any loss arising from disability, illness, or death caused by participation in this event, and voluntarily bear all resulting consequences and legal liabilities arising therefrom.

II. Commitment to Fair and Civilized Participation in this Event

(1) I promise that I will abide by the relevant laws and regulations such as the Law of the People's Republic of China on Physical Culture and Sports and the Measures for the Administration of Sports Events, follow the basic principles of the Olympic Charter, and adhere to the non-politicization of sports, so as to actively create a healthy, harmonious, and civilized sports environment.

(2) I have thoroughly read the Rules

Regulations and the Registration Notices of the Bank of China Beijing Marathon 2026, and promise to comply with all the provisions thereof.

(3) I promise that during the competition, I will ensure that the bib is fully worn on my chest, without folding, covering or altering the bib, will not lend the bib to others, will not participate in the competition by wearing the bib of any other participant, will not engage in any misconduct such as running for others or participating in the competition without formal eligibility, will follow the instructions of the referees and volunteers, will start in an orderly manner, will not start in any starting area other than the designated one, and will prevent any behavior that violates the fairness of competition.

(4) I promise that I will always maintain appropriate words and actions, respect all volunteers, referees, on-site staff, and other participants, observe running etiquette, demonstrate good sportsmanship, and avoid pushing or obstructing other participants.

(5) I promise that I will properly use the mobile toilets set up for the competition (including those near the start, along the course, and finish line), queue orderly when using them, and refrain from uncivilized behaviors such as defecating or urinating in public.

(6) I promise that I will enter and exit each aid station courteously, follow the principle of "use as needed and sort garbage", and use the course supplies reasonably, so as to reduce unnecessary waste; in addition, I also promise that I will properly dispose of used cups, sponges, or rigid beverage bottles in designated trash bins or recycling points along the course, so as to avoid littering on the course and causing inconvenience to other participants.

(7) I promise that I will discard my raincoat in the raincoat recycling area as guided by volunteers before the start, and avoid casually discarding it in the starting assembly area, so as to avoid affecting others.

(8) I promise that I will not consume alcohol, will not smoke (including electronic cigarettes), will not carry flagpoles, banners or other items that may affect course safety throughout the competition, and will consciously maintain the course and the environment along it.

I, as well as my heirs, agents, personal representatives, relatives or family members, have carefully read and fully understood the above contents, hereby confirm them, and are willing to bear all resulting consequences and legal liabilities arising therefrom.

Notice of Face Information Collection for Participating Athletes

Dear Participating Athlete,

To ensure the fair and orderly conduct and safety of the 2026 Bank of China Beijing Marathon (hereinafter referred to as the "Event"), the Organizing Committee will, in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Law of the People's Republic of China, the Civil Code of the People's Republic of China and other relevant laws and regulations, hereby solemnly inform you of the matters related to the collection and use of face recognition information during the Event as follows:

I. Purposes, Methods and Types of Personal Information Processing

The Organizing Committee will collect face information solely for the purpose of participant identity verification, entry registration, and completion confirmation during the Event. The face image data will be collected through designated equipment of the Event and stored in an encrypted database. The information to be collected is limited to facial biometric data and does not involve any other sensitive or irrelevant personal information.

II. Retention Period of Personal Information

According to the relevant provisions of the Regulation on the Administration of Public Security Video and Image Information Systems, the Organizing Committee will retain your face information for no more than 90 days after the information collection concludes. Upon the expiration of this period, the information will be actively deleted. In cases where immediate deletion is not feasible, all processing activities, except for storage and necessary security protections, will be ceased.

III. Data Security Measures

The Organizing Committee will take technical measures complying with national standards (including but not limited to encrypted storage and access control) and effective administrative measures to ensure that your face information will not be divulged, falsified or illegally used. In case of a risk of divulgence, immediate remedial actions will be taken, and you will be notified promptly.

IV. Rights of Participating Athletes

You have the right to choose whether to permit the organizing committee to collect your face information for identity verification. Should you choose face recognition for identity verification, you are required to cooperate with the staff at the pre-race item collection venue to complete the face information collection. Such information will be used for entry registration and completion confirmation on the Event day. Additionally, you may request to access and copy the collected face information. In the event of improper processing, achievement of the intended purpose, or storage beyond the designated period by the organizing committee, you have the right to demand the deletion of the collected face information.

Should you not consent to the collection of your information collection, the Organizing Committee will use ID document verification as an alternative method for identity verification during the Event, as well as for entry and completion confirmation. If your ID document is lost, it will affect your participation in the Event, and the consequences arising therefrom will be your responsibility.

V. Special Notes

The Organizing Committee will use your face information solely for the purposes and in the manner stated in this Notice. Without your consent, the committee will not alter the content as stated herein. By signing this Notice, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to its contents.

I have read and understood this notice in its entirety, and hereby confirm my agreement to its terms and conditions.

Signature of promisor:

ID Number:

Bib Number:

Date: